

International Training on “Quality Seed Production in Rice” from October 29th to 1st November, 2017 at NSRTC, Varanasi.

International Training on “Quality Seed Production in Rice” was inaugurated at NSRTC, Varanasi on 29th October, 2017. . The training was organized jointly by National Seed Research and Training Centre, Institute of Agricultural Sciences (IAS), Banaras Hindu University (BHU) and International Rice Research Institute (IRRI). Dr. A. Vaishampayan, Director, IAS, BHU was chief guest of the event. Dr. Arvind Nath Singh, Director, NSRTC, Dr. U. S. Singh, IRRI Co-ordinator, Dr. Joginder P. Tondon, Former ADG (Seeds) ICAR, Dr. S. Selvaraj, Deputy commissioner (Seed) Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Government of India, Dr. R. K. Trivedi, Consultant, Ministry of Agriculture and Farmers Welfare, Government of India, Dr. R. K. Singh, IRRI, Dr. Sudhanshu Singh, Rainfed Lowland Agronomist-South Asia, IRRI and Dr. P. K. Singh, Professor, Genetics & Plant Breeding, IAS, BHU graced the occasion. There were 24 participants among which 15 participants were from Cambodia. Training consisted lectures by different professors and professionals as well as hands on training.

